of the Father and the Son and of the Holy Spirit the grace of God our Saviour in the faith of His promise made to our forefathers in Abraham our father, from which He wrought great mercies to us, even us, from the days of our fathers, as also does Christ to all His elect. For we have been baptized into Christ, of whom we are regenerate children; so that as Christ died for sinners, we also are died to sin, that we might live unto God.
For Christ also died for the ungodly. 26 But even for this we have been accepted in Him, according to the grace of God, by which we have had faith in Christ Jesus, and have been justified from all things, which our own works could not justify: unto the glory of God, through our Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour, who is the image of God and the brightness of His glory, who is the only begotten Son, that in Him we might believe To God who raised Him from the dead. For this is the true faith and the true creed which we must acquire, and so much the more, because we have been born again of water and of the Holy Ghost. For the grace of God which bringeth our salvation is come, by which salvation the whole world is called. For there is none other salvation; and as many as trust in Him shall be saved.
